U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey Office,

Washington, June 4th, 1881.

Col. A. London Snowden,
Superintendent U. S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I wish to avail myself of the occasion of certain comparisons between the standards of the New Orleans Mint with those of the Philadelphia Mint, to compare similar weights belonging to this Office, and with this view I have forwarded to you a box containing those weights, and would request you to remove from the packing box and to place in the cabinet room where the customary standards are usually kept, both the weights from New Orleans and from this Office, in order that all three sets may obtain the same temperature by Wednesday or Thursday morning, when I hope to have the pleasure of being present at the comparisons desired by the Director of the Mint.

Yours respectfully

J. E. Hilgard
